

Why hasn't there more public input into the proposal for broadcast ownership. At least more information should be provided. The air waves do belong to the people of America, don't they? The upcoming vote June 2nd, sounds like it's another "big brother" tactic (or should I say the rich get richer). FCC is suppose to defending and working for the citizens of this great country. Allow more input into this ownership procedure.